

Pardon Our French

- Danses Autour Du Monde*.....Fernande Decruck (1896-1954)
Au pays imaginaire
Île de Java
Cambodge
- Fantaisie*.....Denis Bédard (b. 1950)
- Sonata, Op. 166*.....Camille Saint-Saëns (1835-1921), Arr. Jeffrey E. Vickers
Andantino
Ad libitum/Allegretto
Molto Allegro
- Sonate*.....Marc Eychenne (1933-2012)
Allegro
Andante
Rondo
- Pièce en forme de Habanera*.....Maurice Ravel (1875-1937)
- Chants d’Auvergne (1<sup>ère</sup> Série)*.....Joseph Canteloube (1879-1957), Arr. Ito Yasuhide
La Pastoura als camps
Bailèro
L’aïo dè rotso
Ound’ onorèn gorda?
Obal, din lou limouzi

Described by Eugene Rousseau as “a talented saxophonist,” JASON T. LACZKOSKI is a performer, conductor, and educator. He has performed solo and chamber recitals throughout the United States, in addition to appearances at the North American Saxophone Alliance Conference and the International Navy Saxophone Symposium. At Dakota Wesleyan University, Laczkoski is an assistant professor of music and is the director of bands. He studied saxophone with Joseph Murphy at Mansfield University of Pennsylvania and with world renowned saxophonist Kenneth Tse. Laczkoski is ABD and expects to complete his doctoral degree in the spring of 2024. In addition to his saxophone studies at Iowa, he completed a secondary area in conducting, studying with Myron Welch and Richard Mark Heidel. Laczkoski is a Yamaha Performing Artist and performs exclusively on Yamaha saxophones. He is an E. Rousseau Mouthpiece Artist and performs exclusively on E. Rousseau mouthpieces.

Brett Cooper is a native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa and is the Senior Development Associate and Volunteer Coordinator at the Washington Pavilion of Arts and Science in Sioux Falls. He is a pianist & organist at Westminster Presbyterian Church and is an active collaborative pianist in the region.

Mr. Cooper received his master's degree in piano performance at the University of South Dakota as a student of Dr. Susan Keith Gray and his bachelor's degree from Luther College in Decorah, Iowa. Brett and his wife Laura reside in Sioux Falls with their dog Stanley. The Coopers are founding members of the White Spruce Chamber Players, a South Dakota-based ensemble committed to providing the region with approachable, high-quality chamber music.